

- 2) For each of the following, give their importance in the diet (5 marks)
- a) Protein
 - b) Fibre
 - c) Simple Carbohydrates(sugar)
 - d) Oil/Fat
 - e) Water
- 3) What are the muscle waves called that move food along the digestive tract? (1 mark)
- 4) On average, how big is the stomach of a 16hh horse? (1 mark)
- 5) As a rough guide what percentage of bodyweight would you feed an overweight horse? (1 mark)
- 6) Should very sharp/excitable horses be fed a high starch or high fibre diet? (1 mark)
- 7) Give 3 advantages of feeding a high fibre diet (3 marks)
- i)
 - ii)
 - iii)
- 8) List the 3 most commonly used fibre sources in chaff products (3 marks)
- i)
 - ii)
 - iii)
- 9) British haylage is most commonly made from which grass? (1 mark)

10) Give 2 advantages of feeding bagged forage/haylage over feeding hay (2 marks)

i) ii)

11) What does feeding “ad-lib” mean? (1 mark)

12) What is a “complete feed”? (1 mark)

13) Match each horse to the most suitable diet: (4 marks)

a) 12.2hh native pony prone to laminitis

1) Mollichaff Calmer & HorseHage High Fibre

b) 12 year old TB struggling to maintain weight

2) Mollichaff HoofKind & Timothy HorseHage

c) Very sharp ArabX TB who holds weight reasonably well

3) Mollichaff Veteran

d) 28 year old Irish Sports Horse struggling to eat much hay or haylage

4) Mollichaff Condition & Ryegrass HorseHage

a =

b = c =

d =

14) Name the 4 varieties of HorseHage (2 marks)

i) ii)

iii)

iv)

15) For each HorseHage product, give an example of the type of horse it is most suitable for (4 marks)

i) ii)

iii)

iv)

16) Give 3 advantages of feeding HorseHage over big bale haylage products (3 marks)

i) ii)

iii)

- 17) Every bale of HorseHage comes with a 100% Quality guarantee. True or false? (1 mark)
- 18) Is the sugar level in HorseHage higher, lower, or about the same as that in good quality hay? (1 mark)
- 19) HorseHage High Fibre & Timothy are ideal for horses & ponies suffering from laminitis. True or false? (1 mark)
- 20) How many “Complete Feeds” are there in the Mollichaff Range? (6 marks)
- 21) Mollichaff Calmer contains elevated levels of which mineral? (1 mark)
- 22) Which Mollichaff product is entirely molasses free? (1 mark)
- 23) Which Mollichaff products carry the HoofKind Logo? What does this mean? (2 marks)
- 24) Name the main ingredients in Mollichaff Condition (3 marks)
- 25) Mollichaff Veteran is particularly suited to older horses, but what other type of horse can it often be recommended for? (1 mark)